

University of Montana

ScholarWorks at University of Montana

University of Montana News Releases, 1928,
1956-present

University Relations

7-10-1970

K. Ross Toole author of 'Angry Man'

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases>

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations, "K. Ross Toole author of 'Angry Man'" (1970). University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present. 6084.
<https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/6084>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.

IMMEDIATELY

caskey/lh
7/10/70
state + cs

K. ROSS TOOLE
AUTHOR OF 'ANGRY MAN'

MISSOULA----

Dr. K. Ross Toole, a professor of history at the University of Montana, is author of a recently published book, "An Angry Man Talks Up to Youth," which includes his controversial essay, "The Tyranny of Spoiled Brats."

Dr. Toole's essay, originally a letter to his brother, created ^a nationwide stir after it appeared in The Billings Gazette in February. In the essay, Dr. Toole strongly criticizes student militants as "spoiled brats," and he defends the "older generation" as the one which, despite serious hardships, has made considerable social progress in America.

The essay has been reprinted in U.S. News and World Report and a condensed version appeared in the June issue of Reader's Digest. The article also has appeared in dozens of newspapers across the U.S.

The 64-page paperback book was published by Award Books of New York and includes essays about Kent State University and Jackson State, where several demonstrating students were killed by National Guardsmen and police this spring.

Dr. Toole is scheduled to appear on the Art Linkletter television show three days this month. Dr. Toole said his first appearance will be either July 22 or July 23.

#####